I'll duck out of my budget meeting and then duck back in. Hope this time is still good for folks.

I forget whether there was a call-in number - shoot me a quick note if you want me to provide ours -

Hi Ross, that would work for me. I usually get in at 9:30. I don't keep my calendar on Lotus Notes but am free all day except 11-12. If you have time in the morning (assuming you get in earlier than me) and can check schedules and send an invite to coordinate, that would be great. Otherwise, I will coordinate something when I arrive for later in the day on Wed if possible, or Thursday if necessary.

Here's an idea. It sounds like I'm the only one who has a conflict at the previously-agreed time tomorrow. My meeting is scheduled to run 9:00 - 11:00 but I'm only on the first part and the last part of the agenda. Can we meet from 9:30 to 10:00 or 10:00 - 10:30. (I guess y'all could keep going after 10:30 if you wanted.) It would be nice to have our conversation tomorrow, esp. in light of the upcoming deadline.

Samir -

Can you please send out a re-Schedule notice, keeping in mind what everyone has said about availability.

I would hope that information is current on each of their/our Lotus Notes Calendars so you can tell at a glance.

I agree that earlier would be better. I'm pretty sure I'm available some times on Wed. afternoon but don't know how or whether they match others' available times. That should show on the calendar.

Thanks

Samir,

Do you want to send a reschedule?

How about Thursday at 2 or 3?

Jim

Folks,

I'm in a gnarly budget meeting at the same time as our call. I might need to opt out and get an update from Jim or Samir after the discussion. Would that be OK?
